

Affluence Small Company Fund

Fund Report - February 2017

Fund Commentary

The Australian market increased in February, with the ASX 200 increasing by 2.3% for the month, and the ASX Small Ordinaries increasing by 1.3% for the month. The Affluence Small Company Fund decreased by 0.4% in February, to bring total performance since inception 10 months ago to 9.5%.

The Fund was held back this month by three of the unlisted funds decreasing by -2.8% to -4.2%. We do not focus on short term performance for any of our investments, and we are confident that all three funds can outperform their benchmarks over the medium to long term. The major positive contributor to this months performance was the Phoenix Opportunities Fund which increased by 4.8%.

At the end of February, the Affluence Small Company Fund held investments in 4 unlisted funds representing 61% of the total portfolio, 6 LICs accounting for 17% of the total portfolio, and the balance 22% cash.

What Makes This Fund Different

Traditional Fund Managers	Affluence - Invest Differently
Follow The Herd: Traditional managers are too scared to fail, so they don't succeed. Most don't outperform the index.	Actively Pursue Out-performance: From our fee structure alignment to our investment methodology, our strategy targets positive returns and low volatility.
Restricted Product Selection: Commonly places clients into their own managed funds or choose from a restricted list of 'approved' funds.	Best Of Breed: We will seek the best fund managers, and combine them in a way which cushions against market corrections.
Traditional Asset Classes: Manage large amounts in traditional asset classes (e.g. ASX200 equities), which minimises chances of excess performance.	Unique Strategies: We prefer managers who operate in specialised markets with less funds under management and a competitive advantage.
High, Fixed Fees: Take fees regardless of performance.	No Fixed Fees: Our fees are 100% performance based.

Investment Strategy

We believe that exposure to Small and Microcap Australian Equities through quality investments across different managers, investment strategies and structures can provide higher risk adjusted returns from this asset class.

The Fund provides access to a diversified investment portfolio of Small and Microcap Australian equities unlisted funds and LIC's as selected by Affluence. We aim to outperform both the ASX Small Ordinaries Accumulation Index and the ASX 200 Accumulation Index over rolling 3 year periods and to deliver these returns with lower volatility.
